Caring at the Table

Gathering around the table is one of humanity's oldest traditions. We gather to dine, we gather to reconnect, we gather to reunite. Across a table, you can bridge the years, you can make new friends, and every so often, you can create art.

The Foundation for Hospital Art is based on a simple principle: ordinary people doing the extraordinary for one another through art. A brush, some paint, a canvas – and, of course, a table on which to rest it all – are all you need to create artwork that will bring comfort and happiness to others. Maybe they'll be in your town, maybe they'll be across the world. But the work you do at your table will extend farther than you can possibly imagine.

As you look through the following pages, you'll see all the ways that the Foundation has reached out to those in need over the past year. You'll also see plenty of opportunity to help out. No artistic experience is necessary; all you need to have is a willingness to bring a little color into the lives of others.

So have a seat at your own table and look through these pages. Share them with family and friends as you trade tales. And make some time for the Foundation for Hospital Art. You can paint with friends, aid with the creation of art in hospitals and homeless shelters, or participate in a team-building exercise with your co-workers. You'll come away with inspiration, thankfulness, and plenty of stories to tell the next time you gather around your own table, wherever it may be.

Join in the Foundation's efforts to bring beautiful art to every corner of the world. There's always room for you at our table.

Individual Impact

One person, with one paintbrush, can change the world.

A West Point cadet partners with a rehab patient. The art will go to a hospital in Afghanistan.

Volunteers at Operation Lovejoy in Atlanta paint with the homeless and send the art around the world.

Painting with patients at their bedside brings comfort and joy to those in a hospital.

No matter whether you haven't painted since childhood or whether you're an accomplished artist, the impact on those who view your work is the same. Through your hands, you can touch the hearts of thousands in hospitals and care facilities around the world.

Your artwork, your act of caring, brings fish, animals and flowers to life in a way that transforms people's lives. What were once plain, sterile walls are now full of color, hope and life.

We hope to put artwork in every hospital in every country in the world. But we can't do it without your help. We're blessed with your hands and your support, and we thank you for taking the time to remember us and give so generously of your time. We hope that you will join us in 2010 in our mission to love and comfort those stricken with illness and sadness.

Ask the hundreds of thousands of patients who have drawn comfort from the work of people just like you – art plays a measurable role in recovery and healing. Scientific studies have demonstrated how beneficial a splash of color in otherwise sterile hospitals can be.

Help us spread the joy of color. All it takes is a paintbrush.

Global Impact

Color needs no translation, and beauty reaches across all borders. One of the Foundation's most important elements is its international reach—the way that paintings done in one country often end up brightening the lives of those thousands of miles away. You'll find Foundation paintings in every corner of the globe.

No matter the language, no matter the culture, no matter the background, whenever someone picks up a brush for the first time—or the fiftieth—the reaction is always the same: I did this. I made this. This is for you. No words are necessary.

Teambuilding & Community Service

A PaintFest is, quite simply, the perfect teambuilding event – one that brings people together and makes an impact in the community. The Foundation has developed a PaintFest teambuilding event that's convenient, scalable and easily accomplished from conference rooms to cafeterias to convention halls. Companies and communities bond over a canvas and the beauty of the art that is created.

No previous painting expertise is required. You simply follow the color-code and begin to create a beautiful masterpiece. We can accommodate groups of any size, ranging from a handful to the thousands. We've held PaintFests in every kind of facility imaginable, from hotels to Olympic villages, hospitals to schools, arenas to homeless shelters.

We're ready to paint with your team. Contact the Foundation today at www.hospitalart.org to learn more about how you can engage your team in a worthwhile cause.

How You Can Paint For Hospitals

It's Easy as 1, 2, 3...

1: The artwork is prepared ahead of time by the Foundation. All you have to do is stay in the lines!

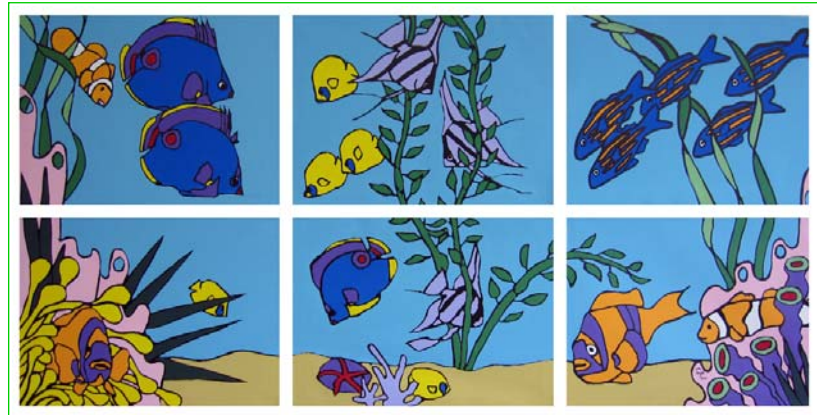

*Multiple-canvas paintings:
Horizontal: 3'1" X 6'2"
Vertical: 4'1" X 4'8"
Wall murals and ceiling tile designs are also possible. Please visit our web site for examples.*

2: PaintFest participants then bring the color, a positive spirit, and uncompromising teamwork.

3: The artwork is touched up, signed to acknowledge the sponsor, and delivered to hospitals designated by you or, if you wish, selected by the Foundation.

Create a PaintFest

In-Hospital PaintFests
Volunteers paint with patients, families and hospital staff in the hospital setting. It's upbeat and fun!

One or two-day PaintFests create a large body of artwork for the hospital, including multiple-canvas paintings, ceiling tiles and walls.

Media attention can be substantial.

Teambuilding PaintFests
In a relaxed atmosphere, participants team up for about two hours to complete colorful works of art which comfort people in hospitals.

No artistic experience is necessary!

In-Office PaintFests
Without disrupting the workday or leaving the premises, employees reach out to people in hospitals.

They paint at scheduled times or during breaks, returning to work feeling positively refreshed.

It's a convenient way to better the community and improve morale.

PaintFest Kits
FFHA mails you the pre-drawn artwork, art supplies and instructions so you can create your own PaintFest.

Add impact to your next family, community or corporate gathering. Donate or keep the completed artwork. Please see PaintFest Kit information on page 5, or visit our web site at www.hospitalart.org.

Our Pursuit

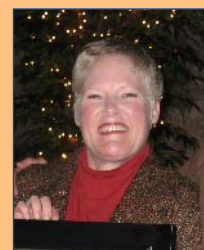

The idea for hospital art began in 1975. John Feight was painting a mural on the walls of Atlanta's Northside Hospital when a young girl touched him on the shoulder and said, "I want to paint." Since 1984, the Foundation for Hospital Art, a 501(c)(3) publicly funded, non-profit organization, has sought to change how hospitals look and feel by bringing color to otherwise sterile walls.

Since then, we have:

- Placed paintings in 194 countries
- Donated over 36,000 paintings to more than 3,000 healthcare facilities
- Involved more than half a million people

Foundation Paintfests have been held on every continent, even Antarctica. We have painted behind the Iron Curtain and in repressed nations such as Cuba. We've painted in war zones and in peacetime. Our butterflies, seascapes, forest scenes and murals decorate walls all over the planet. And for every single person who's ever painted, their favorite work is always the same: "The next one."

The Foundation's stated mission is to give comfort and hope to people in hospitals and other places of healing. We seek to make these spaces beautiful, and we want to donate at least one painting to every hospital on Earth.

People around the world are standing up to make this dream a reality. People are helping to change the traditional look of hospitals into soft and warm healing places. Because of a little girl who wanted to paint, the world is now painting.

But we can't keep doing it without you! To learn more about the Foundation, to schedule your PaintFest, or to order PaintFest kits, please visit www.hospitalart.org.
